NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The RiverDogs pulled out their first win of the season behind stellar pitching and explosive bats. However, the IronBirds stayed in the game and never stopped fighting despite only having 8 players. Owen Gallup threw a 3 inning, 50 pitch No Hitter, striking out 6, while allowing 4 walks, and 0 runs. Zoe Cotrell and Bryce Powierski made great heads up plays on the defensive side. The RiverDogs put the heat on the IronBirds defense by aggressive hitting and smart baserunning. Eli Felt led the hitting going 2-3 with a DBL and a HR, 3 RBI's and 2 runs; followed by Bryce Powierski going 2-4 with 2 DBL's, 2 RBI's, and 1 run scored. The IronBirds played tough defense despite missing some outfielders. Kellen Wilson settled in on the mound, finishing the 2nd and 3rd innings. He struck out 3, while allowing 4 runs, and 6 walks. Rowan Oldfield and Kellen Wilson led the offensive for the IronBirds. Oldfield was 2-3, with a walk, a K, and a run scored, while Wilson was 1-3 with 2 FC's and an RBI.
