NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)
Neither rain or cold temperatures would keep the Angels and Orioles battling for the early top spot. The Angels struck first going up 1-0. It would take the Orioles until the 3rd inning before a shot from Oliver Parker leading to a triple and an overthrow allowing him to make it home to tie it up. Oliver threw 12 strikeouts to help hold the Angels to just 2 runs runs 5 innings. The Orioles broke the game open in the 4th inning. Dawson Coy came into the game at the top of the 6th to close out the game throwing to key strikeouts.
The Angels will play the Giants on Monday while the Orioles travel to Homer for a game on Wednesday.
