NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Giants squared off on a very solid Angels baseball team. Despite the muddy conditions both teams played their hearts out tonight. There were many great plays by both teams throughout the game. The Angel would score first on a big hit double from Packy Q. He would drive in Carson Greene. The Giants would answer right back with Dekin Davis earning a double on a great hit to the outfield. Dekin would eventually score with an RBI from Cooper Coheno. Both teams pitchers would settle down and go right to work. Andrew Barber would keep the Giants offensive in check striking out 10 batters. The Angels would have a 5-2 lead heading into the bottom of the 6th. Lennox Eastman had difficulty finding the strike zone and the Giants would have great discipline at bats. The Giants would score 4 runs and walked the game off with a walk. Logan Russel came in and relief Davis off the mound. He would pitch an outstanding game holding the red hot Angels offensive.
