NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Phillies watched the game slip away early and couldn't recover in an 8-0 loss to Homer LL Yankees on Monday night. The Yankees took the lead in the 1st inning on an out call on a dropped 3rd strike, throw down to first base. Two throwing errors later, on that same play, allowed the Yankees to score and take a 1-0 lead. The Phillies struggled to put runs on the board and had a tough time defensively containing the Yankees baserunners, giving up 8 runs. One bright spot for the Phillies was a double by Gabe Abbott in the 3rd inning. Anthony led things off on the pitcher's mound for the Yankees. The hurler lasted 2 1/3 innings, allowing 1 hit and 0 runs while striking out 7. Dekin Davis (Phillies) surrendered 6 runs on 1 hit over 3 2/3 innings, striking out 9. Davis showed signs of consistency on the mound and looks to build on his positive pitching performance. Jaxon Clark threw 1 1/3 innings out of the bullpen.
