Game Highlights:

The Nationals hosted the Homer Yankees in an exciting Wednesday night little league matchup. The game began with a leadoff double by Anthony from the Yankees, who managed to score on a passed ball. However, the Nationals quickly responded as Trey Gambitta hit a leadoff triple, followed by another triple by Harry Giroux, resulting in both players scoring and giving the Nats the lead. In the 2nd inning, the Yankees managed to tie the game, but it was in the third inning that they took control, scoring four runs, highlighted by Miles Franco's impressive inside-the-park home run. With their newfound lead, Franco then took the mound and effectively stifled the Nationals' offense for the rest of the game, securing the win for the Yankees.
