NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Reds and Giants squared off for the first time this year. Both teams had impressive first wins of the season and were eager to get the game in despite the unsettled weather. Both teams displayed impressive pitching performances only allowing 5 hits in the game. Cam Albright got the start for the Giants and was very effective early in the game. After giving up the only hit in the game from his first batter, Cam finished the game with 8 strikeouts with 4.1 innings worth of work. Kooper Sears earned the save with 1.2 innings striking out 3 batters. The Giants infield was very impressive making plays keeping the Reds off the bases. The Giants improve to 2-0 on the season and roll quickly into another game Monday night 5/8 vs the Nationals.

Giants Offensive Leaders:
