The Athletics came out swinging in the top of the first. After Mason Lane worked the count to reach on a walk, the A's had 4 consecutive hits: Khrystopher Nelson singled, Oliver Parker doubled, Dekin Davis singled and Riley Burns singled to bring 4 runs across the plate. The Nationals bounced right back with their own bat attack. Emersynn Wilson led off with a laser ripped up the middle and Cooper Cohenno reached on a HBP. Camden Albright and Harrison Giroux hit back-to-back doubles and Trey Gambitta hit an RBI single to bring the Nationals 4th run across the plate. After the first, the Nationals pitchers and defense stepped up and held the A's to only one more run for the rest of the game.
