NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

Giants started out to an early lead 1 – 0 after doubles by Emersynn Wilson and Dekin Davis which would score Wilson. Camden Albright (Twins) would strike out the next 2 batters ending the inning. Twins and Giants would both go scoreless until the 6th inning, thanks to some great pitching by Twins Camden Albright (12 strikeouts) and Giants Cooper Cohenno and Dekin Davis who combined for 10 strikeouts. The top of the 6th inning the Twins had the tying run on and 1 out. Camden Albright doubled, putting runners in scoring position. 2 batters later with 2 outs, Gavin Hall hit a triple to right field and cleared the bases putting the Twins in the lead. Owen Gallup would single and score him and Aiden Lyttle would double leaving 2 more runners in scoring position, but the Giants were able to get out of the inning. Bottom of the 6th the Giants found themselves with bases loaded and scored one. But Twins Aaron Forehand was able to get things under control and strike out the side to end the game giving the Twins the win.
