NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The third seed Blue Jays squared off against the top seed Giants Saturday afternoon for some chilly playoff CCLL baseball. The winner would punch their ticket to the championship game next Saturday afternoon.

The Jays struck fast and furious plating six runs in the opening frame. Three Jays hits along with three walks and a hit batter helped the Blue Jays to bat through the order.

Despite a 6-run lead, Blue Jays pitcher Cole Milligan felt the pinch knowing that the Giants have a potent and power packed lineup. Milligan, supported by some great defense, cruised through the first 3 ½ innings, tacking on 3 more runs to take a comfortable 10-2 lead into the bottom half of the 4th inning.

And then the momentum quickly shifted as the mighty Giants scored 8 runs on 2 hits, 1 BB, a hit batter, and taking advantage of 4 fielding errors by the typically sure-handed Jays.

And just like that, the score was knotted at 10 apiece heading into the 5th inning.

The Jays struck again in the last inning, scoring 5 runs. With one out, Garrett Major worked a walk, Camden Albright laid down a successful sacrifice bunt that resulted in an overthrow at first. On the overthrow, Major scored. Albright was able to score on a passed ball. After back-to-back walks, Evan Friedman came through with a clutch single driving in 2 more runs. Friedman would also score on a passed ball.

Blue Jays relief pitcher Kayden Alexander was poised and smooth retiring the final 8 outs of the game, including 4 strikeouts, no runs or walks, and only surrendering 1 hit.

The lone three hits for the Giants came from: Bryce Rorick, Zach Janeski, and Cooper Sears. Owen Mulcahy and Rorick each scored 2 runs.

The Blue Jays' six hits were scattered by six different hitters. Garrett Major scored three times, while Milligan, Camden Albright, Kayden Alexander, Gavin Brown, and Friedman all scored twice.

Centerfielders Kooper Sears (Giants) and Evan Friedman (Jays) each showed some fine glove work in the outfield.

The Jays advance to play in the championship game at 3:30 on Saturday. The Giants will play Wednesday at 5:45 awaiting the winner of the Reds/Orioles game that will be played Monday evening.
