The A's and Nats came out swinging in this ball game. Trey Gambitta ripped a single that scored the runners on second and third to put the Nationals on the board. But, the A's bounced right back with there bats. Khystopher Nelson led the A's off with a single. Miles Bacigalupi and Jonah Fassett followed with two more singles and Dekin Davis ripped a triple over the Nationals' left fielder to bring in three runs for the A's in the bottom of the first. The Nationals were able to bring four runs across the plate in each the next three innings while their pitchers Trey Gambitta and Harrison Giroux fired strikes and limited the A's to just two runs the rest of the game.
