The Major Division Reds and Nationals battled each other on a beautiful evening on NBT Bank Field at Ted Testa Park. The team's pitcher's (6 total) combined for 24 strikeouts. Notably the Reds pitching combined by a 3-person rotation one-hitter. Pitching brilliance was led by Oliver Parker whom in 3 1/3 innings struck-out 9 hitters while giving up 1 walk, 0 hits, and 1 run only using 53 pitches. For the Nationals, Rogoff pitched lights after settling down in the 3-5 1/3th innings. Unfortunately, a few errors were detrimental to his efforts and the Reds were able to capitalize.

The Reds offense was led by Xanden Preston whom went 2-3 with a double, 2 runs scored and 2 RBI. The Red's offense sprinkled in timely hits by 6 other players.
