NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

It was a pitcher's duel until the last out. But in the end it was the Padres Nathaniel Poole who brought his team to victory. Poole struck out 16 batters, with no walks and giving up only one hit, in a complete game gem. The White Sox Daniel Murphy was equally impressive, striking out 13, also not issuing a single walk.

The Padres first run was scored by Pool in the first inning. A hard hit ground ball to the first baseman was not able to played and Poole reached on the error. After reaching second on a passed ball, the next batter struck out, but a passed ball third strike forced the throw to first base to get the runner. A hustling Poole was able to score from second base on the play.

The White Sox lone run was scored by Murphy, who after striking out reached first on a passed ball. Murphy, showing great base running skills stole his way around the diamond and scored on a return throw to the pitcher from the Padres.

With the game tied at one in the third inning, Barrett Trabucco, scored what would become the game winning run. Trabucco singled, stole his way around to third base, then scored on a passed ball with two outs and two strikes on the batter.
