NOTABLE HIGHLIGHTS: (double plays, etc.)

The Giants and Homer Blue squared off for the first time this year. Homer Blue came out swinging the bats in the first three innings of the game. Homer would put the Giants outfield to the test throughout the game. The Giants defense made some big stops to limit Homer from opening up the game. Bracy Carter made a clutch catch in center field in the first inning. The Giants first three batters popped up twice to the pitcher and nice play was made by the centerfielder from a hard hit by Antonio Meaker. The Giants would eventually get help with the middle of the order and put up runs in the next three innings. Mason Lane and Kelenn Wilson would each have an RBI in the 4th to give the Giants the lead 5-3. Homer Blue would respond in the 5th and put up two more with a big hit from Dexter Hill resulting in 2 RBI's. Emmy Wilson made three spectacular plays from catcher throwing out three runners stealing third in the 5th and 6th inning to keep the Giants at pace. The Giants would tie the game in the bottom of the 6th. Emmy Wilson would draw a walk and then stole second. When she stole second, the ball was sent over the second baseman's head and went into the outfield. Wilson was able to use her speed and score. Antonio Meaker then flyed out to short with the first out. Deakin Davis hit a tower shot to center fielder which resulted in a triple. Davis had the go ahead run on third with 1 out. Homer was able to strike out the next two batters which left Davis stranded at third. The game would go into extra innings and both clubs were held scoreless in the 7th. Homer Blue would eventually open up the game scoring 4 runs in the top of the 8th. The Giants would put up a fight in the bottom of the 8th. The first two batters would draw walks and Ashan Reed hit is best hit of the season with a laser triple in right field resulting in 2 RBI's. The next three batters would strikeout ending the Giants hope of a comeback.
